ORR DOWNS RIVERSIDE IN FAST GAME 4 TO 3

Leaders Strengthen Lead In Mill League Race-"Dopie" Major Soon To Join Team

Orr regained her hold as leaders of the mill league yesterday after-HIDES—Bring them to me if you noon by defeating Riverside 4 to 3. want best prices. I buy and sell The game was applody's until the more hides than any other dealer in last frame, when the Riversideltes, in a desperate rally, drove in two runs. They could not overcome Orr's three

They could not overcome Orr's three run lead, though. There were no spectacular features of the game, although the playing of both teams were good. Orr players made six errors, but none of these were costly and were kept well scattered.

Mill league fans were given a happy thrill yestorday when it was announced that "Dople" Major, Clemson's star second-sacker, and one of the best hitters, of that team, would join the Orr club next month. The other clubs have strongthened their clubs to the extent that Orr does not feel that she can walk away with things, but, instead are expecting a hard fight for the pennant.
